Mr. and Mrs. Clement Rawlins, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Stocks, Mr. and Mrs. George Villett, Mr. and Mrs. Dow Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Van Orden formed a party and motored to Smithfield to the dance Saturday evening.

"A MILLION BID" AT THE LYRIC TONIGHT

Through popular demand the Greater Vitagraph Company has reissued the great success featuring dainty Anita Stewart, "A Million Bid," in a de luxe edition. This production which has been secured for the program at the Lyric Theater tomorrow, is an excellent one in every way and won the greatest plaudits from all critics wherever it was shown.

In addition to many thrilling scenes, beautiful costumes and handsome settings laid both in America and gay Paree, and also aboard a millionaire's yacht, the cast of this feature film is a decided attraction. Without any doubt it may be termed "all-star."

Anita Stewart plays the leading role while virile Harry T. Morey is cast as the male star. Others in the cast are, E. K. Lincoln, Julia Swayne Gordon, Charles Kent, "Mother" Mary Maurice and Kate Price.
